13 number, or email address may be denied credentials to the convention per Article III, Section 3
14 of the Rules of the Convention. Failure of one delegate or alternate to supply correct or complete

16
17 Section 2: The State Chairman shall be charged with issuing the roll of the State Convention,
18 based upon the Legislative District and County elections, preferably three days but no later than 19 one day prior to the Convention and having certified its accuracy, according to the Statement of Section 2: On or before the last Monday in September in the year preceding a presidential primary, the State Party Chairman shall notify the Idaho Secretary of State’s Office that the Idaho Republican Party opts to participate in the presidential primary. The Chairman shall further notify the Secretary of State’s Office that any Idaho voter otherwise permitted to participate in a Republican primary election in the Rules of the Idaho Republican Party may also participate in the Republican presidential primary.

Section 3: The results used for the allocation of delegates and alternates to the Republican National Convention must be based on the results certified by the Secretary of State to the Chairman after the state canvass.

ARTICLE VI: APPORTIONMENT AND SELECTION OF DELEGATES TO THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

Section 1: (a) No less than fifteen (15) days prior to the presidential primary, a candidate who has properly filed with the Secretary of State’s Office to run in the Republican presidential primary shall submit to the State Party Chairman:

- (1) A nonrefundable delegate processing fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000) made payable to the Idaho Republican Party,
- (2) A list of proposed delegates, in order of preference, totaling up to eighty percent (80%) of the total number of delegates to the Republican National Convention

1 allocated to Idaho, and

2 (3) A list of proposed alternates, in order of preference, totaling up to eighty percent
3 (80%) of the total number of alternates to the Republican National Convention
4 allocated to Idaho.

5
6 (b) In the event the Secretary of State removes a candidate's name from the ballot for any 7 reason pursuant to Idaho Code, the candidate whose name is removed from the ballot shall 8 not be entitled to a refund of the delegate processing fee. A candidate who withdraws from 9 the race, suspends his campaign, or releases delegates without removing his name from the 10 ballot shall likewise not be entitled to a refund of the delegate processing fee.

11
12 (c) Any candidate who fails to submit a list of proposed delegates and a list of proposed 13 alternates to the Republican National Convention in compliance with any provision of 14 subsection (a) of this section forfeits the ability to designate delegates or alternates to the 15 Republican National Convention up to the extent of the candidate's noncompliance.

16
17 (d) Any candidate who fails to pay the delegate processing fee in compliance with subsection 18 (a)(1) of this section forfeits the ability to designate delegates and alternates to the 19 Republican National Convention.

21 (e) A candidate who forfeits the ability to designate delegates or alternates to the Republican
22 National Convention in whole or in part shall not be denied the amount of pledged delegates
23 or alternates as otherwise provided in these rules.

24

1 Section 2: No later than thirty (30) days after the Secretary of State certifies the results of
2 the presidential primary to the Chairman, the Chairman shall appoint a special committee to
3 calculate delegate apportionment pursuant to the provisions of this Article.
4

5 Section 3: (a) Delegates must be apportioned among the candidates on the Republican
6 presidential primary ballot by determining the proportion of the number of votes cast for each
7 candidate to the total number of votes cast for all candidates in the Republican presidential 8 primary. For each delegate apportioned to a candidate, an alternate delegate is also 9 apportioned to that candidate.

11 (b) In order for a candidate to qualify for an apportionment of delegates, a candidate must 12 receive at least twenty percent (20%), before rounding, of the total vote cast for all 13 candidates in the Republican presidential primary. If a candidate fails to garner twenty 14 percent (20%) of the total vote, the candidate does not qualify for an apportionment of 15 delegates, and delegates that would be pledged to such a candidate will be apportioned
16 proportionally among candidates who clear the twenty percent (20%) threshold. Provided 17 however, if no candidate clears the twenty percent (20%) threshold, the provisions of this 18 subsection shall not be in effect, and delegates shall be apportioned proportionally.
19

20 (c) If any candidate receives more than fifty percent (50%) of the total vote cast for all
21 candidates in the Republican presidential primary, all delegates available to Idaho under the 22 Rules of the Republican National Committee shall be apportioned to that candidate.

24 Section 4: (a) If a candidate receives more than fifty percent (50%) of the vote in the

1 Republican presidential primary, the candidate is entitled to have eighty percent (80%) of all
2 the delegates and alternates apportioned to Idaho selected from their lists of delegates and
3 alternates provided to the Chairman. If the candidate's list of delegates or list of alternates
4 does not include a sufficient number of names to fill each slot allocated to the candidate, the 5 unfilled delegate or alternate slots will be filled at the State Party Convention.

6 (b) If no candidate receives more than fifty percent (50%) of the vote, each candidate who is
7 apportioned delegates is entitled to have eighty percent (80%) of that candidate's delegates
8 and alternates selected from their lists provided to the Chairman. Each candidate's delegate
9 and alternate slots shall be filled in order of preference from each candidate's list. If any 10 candidate's list of delegates or list of alternates does not include a sufficient number of
